What is it about the JWDA Table Lamp that makes it so popular? Could it be the soft light that diffuses gently on a bedside table, desk, or bookshelf? Or the artistically-rendered metal base? Perhaps it's the quirky egg-shaped bulb, working in perfect balance with the base to create a simply yet striking look. The JWDA Table Lamp brings warmth and a poetic profile to any room, whether it be a private or commercial space. The new line extension with a bronzed brass finish on the base adds a sense of elegance, perfect for a dimly-lit library room or a pared-down industrial-style space. This is a table lamp that is at once modern and timeless, combining a celebration of raw materials with tech-infused functionality.
